

Audrey Hortense Horne

October 25, 1946 - November 20, 2023

Life's Legacy

Audrey Hortense Horne, a remarkable woman was born October 25, 1946, in Lunenburg, Virginia to the late Alfred Maddux and Eunice Maddux Bragg. She was preceded in death by her husband, Walter Horne, daughter Alfreda Bragg Eppes and brother Alfred Maddux Jr.

Audrey was educated in the Lunenburg County school system. Audrey accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was a member of Bethany Baptist Church in Kenbridge, Virginia. Later in life, she moved to Richmond, Virginia where she worked in housekeeping at Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center for 19 years of dedicated service.

Audrey had a passion for cooking and was well-known for her delicious coconut and sweet potato pies. In her leisure, she enjoyed bus trips to casinos, musical shows, and summer boat rides on the Annabel Lee with her family. Audrey also had a love for gardening. She enjoyed planting various things and watching them grow. It is said: "The love of gardening is a seed once sown that never dies."

Audrey gained her eternal wings on November 20, 2023. She leaves to cherish her memory grandchildren, Lakeisha Bragg and Shannon Eppes; three great-grandchildren, Laila Bragg, London Bragg, and Teagan Blackwell; three sisters, Mable Hite, Joyce Glover and devoted Deaconess Margaret Thomas (Deacon Linwood); five aunts, Ruth Maddux, Gloria Prather (Gilbert), Shirley Maddux, Lonell Maddux, and Rose Ann Sweetney; along with a group of devoted friends that she considered her sisters, Shirley Williams, Nancy Ward, and Frances Patterson. Audrey was a dear friend and loved by many, she will be sincerely and forever missed.
