

Audrey McCoy

February 5, 1954 - December 30, 2015

Audrey McCoy, daughter of the late Earl McCoy, Sr. and the loving Cora McCoy was born on February 5, 1954 in Washington, DC. She peacefully passed away on Tuesday, December 30, 2015 at Future Care Nursing Home.

In 1959, her family relocated to Baltimore, MD where she was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Audrey worked several jobs over the years, including employment at Chimes and even working at her granddaughter's elementary school, Matthew A. Henson.

She loved being with and calling her family and friends, especially around the holidays where she was known for saying the phrase, "10-4 Nigga."

Audrey was the very proud and loving mother of Tichia McCoy and James Odom. She was also a proud grandmother of Sherease Anderson, Keeshawna Odom and Brandon Anderson and a loving great-grandmother to KeZyia Renwick. She is survived by her mother Cora McCoy; four sisters, Virginia Young, Royshelle Benson, Rochelle Mayes, Theresa Edward; three brothers, Earl McCoy, Jr., Tony McCoy and Samuel Lawson. Two sisters-in-law, Rose McCoy and Sherron McCoy. She also had a brother, Jeffrey McCoy (deceased) and a sister, Earline McCoy, also deceased. She also leaves behind a host of family and friends.

Audrey will forever be loved and missed, and will always remain in our hearts.

“ Sis, thank you for sharing your smile, laughter and joy with me. There was times I was feeling down, but the minute I saw your contagious smile and heard that contagious laugh, I could feel joy right away. Your presence could light up any room. The laughter and joy that you shared with everyone was a gift from God. I am just thankful that I was one of the people God picked to share in all your laughter and joy. You will always have a special place in my heart.

I love you sis!

“ John 11:25

Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

Rest in peace my precious sister, for we shall meet again!
