AUGUSTA J. PARKER, was born on February 11, 1911 in Jamestown, Virginia. She departed this life on January 11, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in Jamestown, Virginia, later moving to Baltimore, Maryland. Augusta took pride in caring for her family, she often placed others needs before her own. Her greatest joy was being a servant of the Lord. She was a devoted member of City Temple Baptist Church of Baltimore, Maryland, often referring to the congregation as her second family

Augusta had a smile that could light up the sky and her pleasant disposition made her a pleasure to be around. She will truly be missed, but our loss is surely heaven's gain.

She leaves to mourn: grandson, Selzanick Cook; great-granddaughter, Shantai C. Lullen; nephew, Victor Bonaparte; niece, Cynthia Staley; great-nieces, Linda Perry and Rita Perry; other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
