

Augustus M. Johnson

May 31, 1993 - January 16, 2013

AUGUSTUS M. JOHNSON was born on May 31, 1993 in Baltimore, Maryland to parents, Monique Sampson and Augustus H. Johnson. He was sadly taken away from us on January 16, 2013.

“Gus,” as he was affectionately called, was born a two pound, three ounce baby, that fought to survive from the day he was born. Sad to say, his life was short lived.

Gus received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and Juvenile Facility, where he went at a young age. He was striving to change his life around for the sake of his newborn daughter, Ameriah. He had just signed up to begin GED classed and looking for a job. Now, he will not have the chance to accomplish those goals not be a father to his baby girl.

Gus leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Ameriah Monae’ Johnson; his mother, Monique; his father, Augustus; three sisters, Chamera, Destiney and Miricale; two brothers, Emmanuel and Kalif; grandmother, Barbara; great-grandmother who he loves so much, Bernice; two uncles, Roy and Nick; and a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, friends that have loved him and will continue to love him while he rests in peace.

“ *I am very sorry about the loss David. I send my sincere deepest sympathy. I Would like to take a moment and some comfort from the Bible. God, who started mankind off in a lovely garden , has promised to restore Paradise on this earth under the rule of His heavenly Kingdom in the hands of the new glorified Jesus Christ. In that restored Paradise, the human family will have the prospect of enjoying life without end. Here is one of my favorite scriptures from the Bile." With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples." And God himself will be with them." And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."- Revelation 21:3,4
Yes, this is a wonderful hope that we can look forward to here on earth.*

“ The Bible tells us that the dead are unconscious, in a condition best compared to sleep. (Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10; John 11:11-14) Jesus spoke of a time when “all those in the memorial tombs” would “come out” to renewed life in a paradise earth.—John 5:28, 29; Luke 23:43. True, that glowing hope does not take all the tragedy out of death. Jesus himself broke down and cried over the death of his friend Lazarus—and that was just minutes before he resurrected him! At least, then, death is not always final. Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, both hate death. The Bible calls death “the last enemy” and says that it will “be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) In the coming Paradise, when Satan’s rule is a thing of the past, death will be gone forever. Its innocent victims will be reclaimed by resurrection. Then, when parents are reunited with the children they lost to death, we will at last be able to say, ‘Death, where is your sting?’—Hosea 13:14.
