“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family for your loss of Aurelia. Death is truly a hurting thing, because noone wants to have to go through the pain of having a loved one depart. This was definitely not God's purpose, because he desires all of his servants to live eternally in peaceful, secure conditions. According to 1st Cor 15:22, even though in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." Through his wonderful love for us, Jehovah sent us his precious Son Jesus to pay the ransom price for us. John 3:16 says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." One day soon there will be no more pain, and no more dying, and those who have died will live again by means of the promised ressurection. John 5:25 says: "The hour is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live." May you be comforted by the ressurection hope, and by your preicous memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
