

Author Lee Burley

July 25, 1932 - May 22, 2011

Author L. Burley is the son of the late Thomas and Eunice Burley, Author was born in Warren County Georgia. He later moved to Baltimore, Maryland . Where he met and married the late amazing Grace Burley. Out of this union, Ms Carrie Burley was born .Author obtained his education in Georgia, which he continued in Maryland , he worked for Athens Cleaners for over fifty years, he has worked since the age of nine. He was always on the move , always laughing and joking , He loved to travel. He was rich in his ability to help others, his laughter will be most missed, he had the greatest laugh, which always made those around him laugh. He was great husband to his wife, a daddy to his daughter , he was also superman to three small children many years ago, when they used to lean out of the window just waiting for him to bring them something to eat and he always showed up. He had strong family values and was always one quick to forgive. He never had an unforgiving one in his body. He was a passionate man who loved his Gracie, Carrie, family, fast cars, and motorcycles. He loved life and he loved to talk about the rich history of his youth in Georgia. He had an amazing ability for recall; he remember his childhood from the age of four He was wealth of knowledge. To attempt to articulate how much he will always be missed is impossible... to think , that the world just kept spinning, I can imagine how he was the last of Burley Brothers, he was the last of my immediate family of elders. He was the last man standing, and now he stands the God, with no regrets, no pain and no sadness. He leaves to mourn: one daughter Carrie burley, two Sisters, Annie

Burley and Eva Mae Burley, Georgia:

two Brothers, Bennie Harris, Raymond Harris; Georgia; three loyal nieces Connie Jackson, Charlene Jackson, and Caulina Merrick, two close devoted family friends, Robert and Annie King and a host of other family members and friends. He will especilly miss cat "Tiger".
