

Avery D. Smith

December 4, 1991 - November 9, 2020

On Monday, November 9, 2020 AVERY DEWAN SMITH, loving son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend passed away at the age of 28. Avery aka “King Ave” and “A” was born on December 4, 1991 in Baltimore, Maryland to Giselle Jones and Earl Smith, Sr. He attended Calvin Rodwell Elementary and Garrison Middle School with his big sister Shanice and his childhood friends. He then attended Mervo (Mustangs) High School where he graduated and got his high school diploma. Avery completed some college at Morgan State University. Avery began working at S.I. Restoration in 2013 and has just passed his exam to become a fire fighter in November 2020. He loved playing and watching sports, especially football and basketball. His favorite football team was the Los Angeles Chargers. He played fantasy football with his fellow mustang family. He loved collecting items, especially watches and coins. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. His favorite times was when he went out and made moments with his father and nephews. Avery accepted people for who they were and never had a problem telling you about yourself, One thing that Avery knew was he had the ability to light up the room and bring everything together no matter how late he arrived to the event. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Carita and Charles Jones and his cousin, Jeffery Jones. Avery leaves to celebrate his life: his parents, Giselle Jones and Earl Smith; his beloved siblings, Shanice and David Smith; grandmother; Cecil Downes; niece and nephews, Dashaye, Davon, Damya Smith and Dashaun and Damar McGill; aunts/mothers, Lynette Jones and

Tracy Tarter; his cousins/brothers and sisters, Ashley Clark and Lindsey Smith, Bernard Tarter, Akin Harrell, Richard Jones and Malik Beverage; his godmother, Zalica Harrell-Johnson; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many friends. Avery we will sorely miss you. "Love you 4 ever!!"

Every time I met this wonderful young man, he was always respectful and sweet. Very quiet, laid back no drama. I loved his personality, demeanor, his respectfulness. I will miss him.
