Deepest Sympathy,

A Dear and Wonderful Friend to my late husband (Anthony) and I will truly be missed what we would do just to hear him say our names and see that loving smile on his face. You left our hearts sad we must cherish the good times we share together . To the family keep the memories alive and know that he is resting and and watching us from above. We love you and miss you RIP Avon, Ruth and Ant Jackson he always called you "Ant". Love this guy.

“ Mr. Avon was my Mom's (Gracie) dearest friend. He was the first person to give me a book of poetry. He would say "Gracie this boy has a smart mouth so instead of toys give that boy something to read and write". Mind you I was 5 but he saw something in me and by the time I turned 6 I could read the book he gave me. He was a man of integrity and I'll miss that most about him. Missy and I Love you Mr. Avon aka Mr. Wonderful. Sending Love, hugs, and most importantly prayers to his Wife. God Bless
