

Azariah Armstrong

April 6, 1939 - December 8, 2015

Azariah “Peter” Armstrong, son of the late Daniel Armstrong and Estriana Finletter, was born on April 6, 1939 in Montego Bay Jamaica. Peter was the third of six children. He was educated at Granville All-Age School. Peter was a self-taught Master Carpenter who acquired his skill while in Jamaica.

Peter migrated to America in 1974 and was employed by M.I. Sachs & Son Roofing Company. He returned to Jamaica in 1976 and married his longtime friend, Millicent Taylor. They had two daughters together, Eurit and Jillian, and raised sons Rudolph, Mervin “Toy”, Oneil, Patrick “Paul”, and daughter Marcia.

Peter remained employed at M.I. Sachs & Son until the company closed in 1986. He then became a self-employed Roofer until his retirement in 2010. Prior to his retirement, Peter diligently passed his skills on to his sons. He taught Rudolph carpentry skills and trained Paul in the roofing trade. Peter was known in the Baltimore area as a reliable home improvement contractor who provided quality service.

Peter leaves to mourn his loss: his wife Millicent, children; Paul, Rudolph, Oneil, Marcia, Mervin, Eurit, and Jillian; daughters-in-law Claudine and Juliet; son-in-law Duane; sisters Gwendolyn and Gretel, and brother Harris; several nieces and nephews, many grandchildren and great grandchildren; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
