

Babatunde Soremekun

June 10, 1980 - December 9, 2020

Babatunde “Tunde” A. Soremekun, son of Verina Soremekun and the late Tauheed Adis Soremekun, was born June 10, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was laid to rest on December 9, 2020 at the age of 40.

Tunde received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Growing up, he loved running track, riding dirt bikes, drawing pictures, and taking things apart, just so he could see how they worked. He was adventurous, brave, and never afraid to take risks. Tunde loved to have fun and was super playful, but he was also super protective of his younger siblings.

He was an intelligent, free-thinker with an innovative mind and always stayed true to his word. He was independent, outspoken, wise, and determined, which aided in his success as an entrepreneur and author. He even appeared in a major film, LUV, alongside Tola. Tunde was often described as kind, generous, and loving by those who cared for him most.

Tunde’s love and joy were his twin boys, Justus and Zion. He loved his family and would neglect himself to help someone else. He loved the Lord with all his heart and would spread the word to anyone willing to listen. In fact, he wrote and published 5 books to teach and give spiritual enlightenment, advice and guidance to anyone seeking freedom through the testaments of character in inspiring faith.

Tunde was one of a kind and left a lasting and memorable impression on everyone he met. He was a great son, brother, grandson, nephew, father, uncle, cousin, and friend. He was loved by many and will truly be missed.

Babatunde was preceded in death by his father, Tauheed Soremekun; maternal grandparents, Jesse Sanders and Willie Ma Sanders; and paternal grandparents Ebunoluwa Lasisi and Rafatu Soremekun.

He is survived in legacy by his two sons, Justus and Zion; mother, Verina Soremekun; brother, Joseph (Tola) Soremekun; sister, Titilola Batson; brother-in-law, JoDell Batson; four nieces, five nephews, four aunts, six uncles, and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends whom were blessed to know him.

My condolences to Tunde's love ones. I was extremely close to his father Adisa since 1978 and remember Tunde when he was a baby. I know it would have destroyed Adisa to lose a child that he was very proud of and so special to him. So sorry to hear about Tunde's loss to the Soremekun family may God bless the family he left behind.
