

Babe Ruth Scott

November 12, 1933 - December 27, 2002

Babe Ruth Scott, Sr. was the son of Hazel Scott and Geneva Scott. He was born on November 12, 1933 in Sumter, South Carolina. He departed this life and went to be with his Lord and Savior on Friday, December 27, 2002. Babe Ruth received his education in the Sumter, South Carolina Public School System. At a tender age, he married his sweetheart, the late Dorothy Mae Scott. From this union, five sons and one daughter were born. Babe Ruth was preceded in death by his wife Dorothy Mae Scott and his youngest son, Odis. In 1974, Babe Ruth Sr. and his beloved wife, the late Dorothy Mae Scott, founded the B.R. and the Tire Company on Druid Hill Avenue and Paca Street and later expanded to a second larger establishment on Edmondson Avenue. The greatest joy of his life was to see the smiles and hear the laughter of his grandchildren and great-grandchild. Babe Ruth Sr. was a devoted Christian and loved the Lord Jesus Christ with all his heart. He exemplified this love with the affection he gave to his family and friends. He leaves to mourn: four sons, George (Jimmy), James (Ray), Reggie, and Babe Jr.; daughter, Laurie; four sisters, Sylvia Lemmons of New Jersey, Janey McDowels of South Carolina, Mary Geneva Wilson of South Carolina and Bertha Mae McKnight of Washington, D.C.; four brothers, Laverne Scott of Baltimore, Maryland, Willie Scott of Detroit, Michigan, Theodore Scott of South Carolina and Hazel Jr. of New Jersey; three daughters-in-law, Darlene, Jennifer and Sandy; eight grandchildren, Christia, Jeannine, Sheree, Stephanie, Odis, Danielle, Tiffany and Malik; one great-grandson, Mark; four sisters-in-law, Tiney, Gussie, Nina and Mildred; three brothers-in-law, Stanley, George (Michael) and Charles; a devoted friend and nurse, Dora Scruggs; and a host of other relatives and friends.
