

Barbara Ann Dandridge

November 24, 1946 - April 20, 2003

The Celebration of the life of Barbara Ann Dandridge began on November 24, 1946 in Baltimore, MD and came to a quiet end Resurrection Sunday, April 20, 2003. She was the daughter of Mary Spencer Toliver and William Smith, Sr. who preceded her in death. Barbara was educated in the Baltimore City Public schools, graduating from Edmondson High School, later, attending Community College of Baltimore. Following her attendance at the college, she began her career at the Social Security Adm., subsequently, being employed as a medical secretary at Mercy and University Hospitals. Barbara was a faithful volunteer at St. Agnes Hospital and served for several years in the Adopted-a-Family program for holidays at Providence Baptist Church. She was strong in her faith and was an active of St. Johns Evangelical Lutheran Church, which she joined, originally, in 1985 and returned to in 2002. She was among the good neighbors on Columbus Drive in West Baltimore. To cherish her memory and celebrate her Triumph, Barbara leaves her loving husband, James S. Dandridge "Kit;" two children, Travette Opher and Edward Opher; four grandchildren, Marcus, Brittany, Brandon and Felicia; three sisters, Ida R. Evans, Doree Evans Barnes and Patricia Toliver; three brothers, Clifford Toliver, William Smith, Jr. and Jerome Evans; three brothers-in-law, Robert Dandridge, Earl Dandridge, John Dandridge; three sisters-in-law, Shirley Roberts, Barbara Dandridge and Irene Dandridge. A host of other relatives and friends also mourn her loss.

“ To the family of Barbara Ann Dandridge: Sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. God's word the Bible promises that death will be destroyed and our dear loved ones can arise from the grave. One such promise is found at Hosea 13:14- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" Our family hopes this is of comfort to you.##imported-begin##SHARON HILL##imported-end##
