“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I was one of Barbara's nurses at Hopkins-she was such a wonderful woman-it was sad to see her go through such a difficult situation, but she had so much courage, sweetness and humor-she quickly became one of my favorite patients- I know she fought as hard as she could against her terrible illness-my God give all of you strength to continue on without her-and eventually may you only remember happy and loving times with her....fondly, Karen Katz###imported-begin###Karen Katz###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Davenport. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you experience much comfort and strength every time you think of this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Many months have passed since she left you, but the hurt never completely leaves us when we lose a loved one in death. God never desired this sorrow for the human race, and his purpose is to end sickness and death forever, and bring about a peaceful new world. Acts 24:15 lets us know that the dead will be ressurected back to life. Even the memory of pain and saddness will be erased, because God promises at Isaiah 65:17, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." One day, no more sorrow, no more death. Isaiah 25,8. May Jehovah God comfort you with his compassion and his great love for us. 1st Peter 5:7##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Most people do not wish to grow old, get sick, and die. Ecclesiastes 3:11 explains why; ‘God has put eternity into man’s mind, or in their hearts.’ Death was never Almighty God’s plan for mankind. Thus God made the provision for canceling our inherited sin from Adam and Eve stated at Romans 6:23; ‘the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord.’ In order for us to benefit from this promise, we must learn more about Almighty God Jehovah and his only begotten son, Jesus Christ, John 17:3. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##
