

Barbara Annette Allen

February 6, 1952 - August 18, 2002

Barbara Annette Allen was born on February 6, 1952 in Scotlandneck, North Carolina to Odell Alexander and the late Alvester Alexander. She departed this life on August 18, 2002. Barbara attended Douglass High School from which she graduated in 1969. Barbara, also known as "Kim," met Larry Allen in 1974 whom she later married in 1976. Together they raised two daughters, Tonya Hamlin and Ronda Allen. Barbara had many talents and interest which included ceramics, shopping and sewing in which she received an AA in Fashion designing. She also recently received her certification in Real Estate. Barbara spent much of her time working in the pharmacy where she loved helping patients. She worked fifteen years at University Hospital as a Pharmacy Technician and later moved on to Twin Knolls Pharmacy where she spent eighteen years as a Chemotherapy Specialist. Her last year of work was at Carefirst Blue Cross Blue Shield where she was a Claim Service Representative. Barbara blessed everyone with her loving, caring spirit. Always lending a hand of words of advice to family or friends and anyone in need. Supportive and dependable, indeed she was. Giving a hundred percent to those she loved. Without a doubt, she enjoyed life to the fullest no matter the place, the time or who was present. Barbara is survived by her loving husband, Larry Allen; two daughters, Tonya Hamlin and Rhonda Allen; stepson, Christopher Dorsey; mother, Odell Alexander; two brothers, Carlton Alexander and Larry Alexander; three sisters, Gladystine Cunningham, Karen Dennis and Yolanda Davis; a special nephew and son she never had, Albertus

“Al” Gibson III; a special cousin, Jeanie Allen of Georgia; seven nephews, three nieces, and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins. Barbara also leaves her six special devoted friends, Pat, Sandy, Dot, Lucille, Andrea and Bee; and very special neighbors, Sadie Bennett and family. BY HIS GRACE It is God’s grace we can endure, And preserve through any test; For when our weakest moments come, God’s strength is at its best. -Merna B. Shank Your Loving Husband
