

Barbara Ann Kenney Bolling

July 18, 1943 - March 20, 2025

Barbara Ann Kenney Bolling, born into this world on July 18, 1943, departed this life on Thursday, March 20, 2025. Barbara was born in Henrico County, Virginia to the late James & Elizabeth Kenney and she was preceded in death by her parents and siblings & sisters-in-law, Robert (Florence), Raymond (Yvonne) & Tyrone (Ethel) Kenney and her niece, who was her dear friend, Myra Brown.

Barbara was a graduate of Virginia Randolph High School in the Class of 1961 and upon graduation, she worked for over 30-years in the grocery store business until retiring. She leaves to cherish two sons and two daughters-in-law, John & Lorraine Kenney, Eric & Charlene Kenney, along with 5 grandchildren, Eric Kenney Jr. (Yasmin), Trevor Kenney, Kristin Kenney, Caleb Kenney, & Dashawn Jones. In addition to her grandchildren, she leaves behind 2 great-grandchildren, Manal Kenney and Mason Kenney, along with a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

When it came down to family, however, no relationship meant more to her in her later years than the one she had with Ralph "Shug" Christian Sr. and Connie. Barbara & "Shug" were almost like brother & sister, checking in on each other often and regularly, while sharing laughs about her being at the "bingo casino" all day long.

As a long-time member of Pilgrim Journey Baptist Church, where she served as an Usher, Barbara was a kind-hearted soul who tried to live by the Scripture “do unto others as you would have them do unto you”. Many also knew her from years ago as an avid bowler who participated in league play with her brothers and sister-in-law.

As a resident of The Atlantic at Twin Hickory, Barbara developed special relationships with several persons who made sure she was taken care of from her “card buddy” neighbors, Teann & Sharon, to Wilma, her trusted friend. Barbara enjoyed her days and rewarding friendships. She loved to laugh and spend countless hours working on her word search books, playing Bingo, and just chatting with her neighbors. Her soft smile, warm heart, and loving spirit will truly be missed, but her life lives on.
