

Barbara A. Davis

December 2, 1948 - May 19, 2013

Suddenly on May 19, 2013, the trumpet sounded, and the Angels descended to take Barbara to her eternal home, for to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

BARBARA ANN CHAPMAN-DAVIS made her debut into the world on December 2, 1948. She was born to the late Gladys Lucille Brown and William Chapman Sr.

Barbara was educated in the Baltimore Public School System, and was later employed at various businesses throughout the Baltimore City area. She was later united in holy matrimony to the late Johnny Davis.

Barbara was first and foremost family-oriented. She loved her family, and the time she spent with them. She was devoted to her sisters and brothers, and a loving and affectionate aunt to her nieces and nephews, whom you always saw with her as they were growing up. Barbara had such a "magnetism" about her that many of her friends' children called her Aunt Barbara as well.

Barbara enjoyed life; she was fun-loving and spent quality time socializing at community events with her close friends, Faye (preceded her in death), Keda, Bootsey, DeDe, Elaine and Kay. For several years, she was an active member of the Carpetbaggers Social Club of Lafayette Projects along with her sister, Margaret and brother-in-law, Bennie.

When Barbara relocated to West Baltimore, she befriended Diane Owens, who became a devoted friend, particularly when her health started to fail. Diane was by her side until the end.

The character of the life Barbara lived might be summed up in these few words: she was sincere, she was loyal, she was industrious, she was self-sacrificing, and she was a great friend and confidante to those she called friend.

Her passing may/will leave a void that may be difficult to fill, but you never lose what you love if you love what you lose.

He was preceded in death by: five brothers, Ronald and Donald Chapman, and Roger, Reggie and Anthony McNeil; and sister, Patricia.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Margaret Ritch and Pamela McNeil; two brothers, William Chapman Jr. and Timothy McNeil; six nieces; Tanya, Demetria, Myra, Shante, Monica and Lnette; four nephews, Timothy and Stephen Reed, Randall Taylor Jr. and Reginald McNeil Jr.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The Bible offers a comforting thought at Revelation 2:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things (death) have passed away." My deepest condolences to the family; I am so sorry that you have lost your loved one to the enemy death.

“ My condolence to the family. It times like these that we need comfort from the Bible. The Bible promises that our dear loved ones have the hope of the resurrection hear on earth in the near future we find this promise at (John 5:28, 29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. The resurrection is possible because God sent his Son to give his life for us. So it is an expression of Jehovah's love and undeserved kindness.—Read John 3:16; Romans 6:23.

“ My condolences to the family of Ms. Barbara Davis. Just think if Adam and Eve would not have sinned they along with their offspring would have lived forever. Did their disobedience stop God from ever fulfilling his original purpose? John 3:16 answers that question. The Greatest display of Love ever shown paved the way for not only everlasting life but also the resurrection hope. John 5:28,29.

“ To the family of Barbara:

I wanted to send my deepest condolences to your family.

Please remember that Barbara is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting to hear Jesus voice (John 5:28 & 29) reads, " Marvel not at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the graves will hear Jesus voice & come out."

We can see Barbara again during Jesus Kingdom Rule, right here on the earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29).

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Take Care,
