

Barbara Gail Hammond

November 25, 1944 - April 30, 2008

Barbara Gail Hammond, daughter of the late Benjamin and Moszell Addison, was born on November 25, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Carver Vocational Technical Senior High School where she studied Cosmetology. Barbara was employed by the Social Security Administration for more than thirty years. Barbara loved to read. She also enjoyed collecting dolls, planting flowers, sewing, arts and crafts, and traveling. Barbara was married to the late John R. Hammond; from this union were two children, David and Danielle. Her son, David Christopher Hammond and her brother, Ronald L. Addison preceded her in death. Barbara placed a high priority on "Family" and her family was extremely important to her. She received a tremendous amount of joy from her children and was a wonderful mother. Barbara encouraged her children to be the best that they could be, regardless of their shortcomings. Her love and devotion to her family will be greatly missed. Barbara leaves to cherish her memories, loving and devoted daughter, Danielle J. Myles, son-in-law, Curtis A. Myles, Jr., four grandchildren, Kwamein C. Hammond, Kenyon I. Hammond, Mekhi D. Hammond and Currelle B. Myles, three brothers, John J. Smith, Charles A. Addison, Dr., and Lindsay C. Addison, two aunts, Fannie Mae Middleton and Thelma Mc Clain; two sisters-in-law, Josephine Smith who was also a devoted friend and Yvette Addison, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

“ Hey MOM. I just wanted to wish you a happy Mother's day. I'm glad we became close. You fought the great fight and God finally had other plans for you. Danni, Curelle, and I will cherish your memory forever. Have fun with my Mom in God's Garden, but we appreciate you two planting great seeds here on earth. You will never be forgotten and enjoy your day. Love your son in law Curtis.##imported-begin##curtis##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. May you be comforted as you reflect on the promise of the resurrection. Isa 26:19 say, "Your dead ones will live ...they will rise up." Jesus also demonstrated the power of the resurrection with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. Knowing this about Almighty God gives us comfort and strengthen us during these times.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. One day your loved one will be brought back to life in the glorious resurrection, and you have the hope of seeing her again. Acts 24:15 promises that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous, which also show how merciful Jehovah is, because he desires all to repent, and put themselves in line for everlasting life. John 3:16. Remember how much God loves us, and only desires happiness and peace for all of us. 2nd Peter 3;13 May you draw much comfort and strength from the bible to help you to cope with your loss,###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
