“ To Barbara's family I offer my deepest sympathy, may the fond memories bring you comfort as well as the comfort of the scripture.

2 Cor. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation...

Acts 24: 15 and I have hope toward God , which hope these {men} themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and unrigtheous

Ernestine Lonzo - February 21, 2013 at 09:34 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

To the family of Barbara Gilliam:

I am very sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I am very sorry for your loss, and I hope this message brings you much comfort.
