

Barbara A. Hall

January 30, 1933 - April 11, 2015

Barbara Ann Hall departed this life and entered into eternal peace and glory on Saturday, April 11, 2015. Born on January 30, 1933 in Cambridge, MD, she was the daughter of the late Douglas S. and Hattie Mae Allen. She was an only child.

She was educated in the Dorchester County Public School System. After high school, she attended Morgan State College in Baltimore, Maryland graduating in June 1953. Upon graduation, she began her career in Pathology at Sinai Hospital as a lab technician. She spent forty- two dedicated years at Sinai and retired as the manager of automation. It was her love of science that sustained her passion for her work.

In her mid-twenties, she enjoyed bowling and eventually joined a league. This is where she met her future husband, William D. Hall, Sr. Barbara and William were married in 1961 and through their union had one child, William D. Hall, Jr.

Her dedication to a life of service was not only realized through her work and family. She was a devout member of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, where she served as treasurer. She was also a member of the Greater Baltimore Urban League Guild. She loved to travel and to spend time with family and friends and often did a little scrapbooking to capture the memories. While a private person at heart, she embraced her friendships in the same manner. She made long lasting and caring relationships and will be sincerely missed by those who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memory and celebrate her life: her husband of 53 years, William D. Hall, Sr.; one son, William D. Hall, Jr.; a stepdaughter, Helda McClary; a daughter-in-law, Kimberly G. Hall, and a host of friends, neighbors and church family.
