

Barbara Jean Harris

July 3, 1941 - July 12, 2014

Barbara J. Harris, second daughter, sister to the late Delores Brogden (who preceded her in death) was born to the late James and Mary Harris, July 3, 1941. Born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland, she was educated in the public school system and graduated from Paul L. Dunbar High School.

Starting her adult life she worked various positions as a clerk in Sears. She went on to become employed by the Social Security Administration for twenty-two years until retirement.

Barbara became a devoted witness for Jehovah very early in life until her passing. Barbara enjoyed traveling and always dining out in various restaurants.

She leaves to mourn: two loving nephews, Randolph Price and Brian Carter; niece-in-law, Sharon Price; and a host of other relatives and friends. She will be sorely missed.

The Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away, her journey's just begun

Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrow and the tears;
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how I see her wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.
Loving Nephews and Niece-in-law,
Randolph, Brian and Sharon

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
