

Barbara Hodge

May 20, 1938 - September 1, 2005

BARBARA EUGENIA HODGE was born May 20, 1938 to Mrs. Queenie Webb and the late Oakley Saunders. She suddenly departed this life and transitioned to glory on September 1, 2005. Barbara was affectionately known to her family as "Aunt Barb". She cared for many of the family children throughout the years even though she had no biological children of her own. She was a mother figure to many of us. Aunt Barb attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later became a dedicated wife to her late husband David Hodge Sr. She also had many friends who loved and cared for her and will be missed by all who knew her. Aunt Barb leaves to mourn: her mother, Queenie Webb; nieces, Sharon Williams and Terri Bullock; four nephews, Otis Jr., Michael, David, and Raymond Saunders; her devoted and close friend and sister-in-law, Ola Saunders. She also leaves a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the holy scriptures gives us the needed strength to cope. Acts 24:15 tells us that there is going to be "... a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. May we await this promise in the future.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
