

Barbara J. Fields

November 18, 1936 - April 8, 2003

Barbara Jeanne Fields, the oldest daughter of Annie Mae McCormick and the late Ezell McCormick, was born on November 18, 1936. She departed this life suddenly on April 8, 2003. Barbara was educated in the Baltimore public school system. She graduated from the Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in February 1956. Barbara had various jobs immediately after high school. She was later employed at Head Ski for a number of years, where she received the "Employee of the Year" award. Prior to her retirement in 1998, she was employed at the Clarence Mitchell Courthouse in the Department of Criminal Assignment. Barbara was married to the late Earl W. Fields. They were a loving couple, who did everything together until his death in 1994. Barbara joined the St. Luke Church in 1976 to be with her husband, under the pastorate of the late Rev. Charles Green. She was an active member of the United Methodist women and chaplain of the Senior Choir. Her alto voice will truly be missed. Barbara taught the Adult Bible Class for a number of years. She was also a member of the Lewis I. Keene Black Heritage Singers. Barbara's ministry was sending cards to everyone for every holiday, and cheering the sick and shut-in. Barbara had a special love for butterflies and she loved to travel. Barbara's sweet spirit will be missed by all whose lives she touched. She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving mother, Annie Mae McCormick; a devoted sister, Carole Anne Weems; a devoted nephew, Michael A. McCormick, and wife Martha; stepdaughter, Lynette V. Fields; four aunts, Hattie Mae Stratford, Flossie Lightner, Elouise Springs, and Thomasine McCormick; two uncles, Johnny McCormick and Larry Lightner; five grandchildren, Ryant, Alexis, Andre, Asia, and Aaron; one brother-in-law, Howard Fields; three sisters-in-law, Mildred Shaw, Elenora Fields, and Lillie Fields; four godchildren, Donna, Beverly, Brianna and Edward; best friend and confidante, Gearldine Fields; and a host of other relatives and friends.
