

Barbara J. Smith

January 17, 1947 - July 21, 2002

On July 21, 2002, God called his beloved daughter, Barbara Jean Smith to His Heavenly home to rest. Affectionately known as Jean, she was born on January 17, 1947 to Martha and the late Raymond Sparkman in Pitt County, North Carolina. During her life, she was inspired to accept Jesus Christ as her Savior. Jean was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Jean was a certified Nursing Assistant for thirty-five years until her health failed in March of 2001. Jean will be most remembered for her zest for life and her never-say-never attitude. She was aggressive and very strong-willed. Jean was well loved by those who knew her. If she called you her friend, you were indeed her friend. She leaves to cherish her memory; Charles Smith; three sons and two daughters, Anthony, Charles, Wayne, Wanda and Tonia; her mother, Martha Sparkman; eight grandchildren; two brothers and two sisters, Robert, Raymond, Helen and Brenda; one aunt, Ruby Banks; two sisters-in-law, Ann and Nancy; brother-in-law, Harry; daughter-in-law, Henrietta; a devoted best friend, Jean Gambrill; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ There never was a woman like her. She was gentle as a dove and brave as a lioness.... The memory of my mother and her teachings were, after all, the only capital I had to start life with, and on that capital I have made my way. I love you mom and I miss you, Your Daughter Wanda###imported-begin##Wanda###imported-end##
