

Barbara Ann Jordan

June 23, 1950 - January 23, 2019

BARBARA A. JORDAN, born June 23, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland, was the fifth child and youngest daughter of the late Johnnie and Marjorie Jackson. On January 23, 2019, God called "Barbara" to eternal rest, ending her earthly journey. Barbara professed her faith in Jesus Christ and joined River of Life Church in 1995. Barbara loved to read the word and her favorite book was Psalm chapter 23.

Barbara excelled in school, she graduated with Honors from East End currently known as Carver High. Shortly after high school, Barbara worked several years for Social Security and later united in holy matrimony to Michael Jordan on April 1, 1978. Out of that union two children were born, Kamau and Tomiko Jordan.

She enjoyed math, and completing her youngest brother's school work.

Playing cards was her forte, and one of the best players.

Barbara was famous for providing all her nieces and nephew with nicknames. She decided what you would be called and you better answer to the name she provided. Barbara was a unique feisty individual, a woman of few powerful words.

Barbara was preceded in death by her two brothers Larry Early, Johnnie Jackson Jr. and sister Emily Jackson.

Her life will forever be cherished in the lives of; her children- son Kamau

Jordan, daughter Wright; and son-law-,Jamal Wright;five grandchildren,Dajah Jordan, Jada Jordan, Laila Jordan, Chineye Haygood , and Jamal Wright Jr; two sisters, Lula Roy, and Betty Jackson; one brother, Delvin Pringle; one dedicated long-life friend of the family, Marsha Trotman; and a host of devoted nieces, nephew, cousins and friends.
