

Barbara Lynn Church

July 3, 1939 - November 28, 2001

In Ayden, North Carolina on July 3, 1939, Barbara Lynn Gaskins Church was born to John and Verna Bell Gaskins (who preceded her in death). As the sunset, the angel of silence entered our lives and placed Barbara in the heavenly resting arms of her Lord, surrounded by her family and friends and Wednesday, November 28, 2001. Barbara's early years of schooling were in North Carolina before the family moved to Baltimore, While living in Baltimore she attended Carver Vocational Technical School and Apex Beauty School. She then became a devoted mother and housewife. Barbara had a beauty salon in Cape Charles, Virginia for several years. Not only was she a cosmetologist for her three children, but she was also the neighborhood cosmetologist. She returned to Baltimore raising many of the neighborhood children as a licensed daycare provider. She was employed at London Fog for a short period and the Josephite Father's Headquarters until Thanksgiving Eve. Barbara was an avid entertainer and loved to cook for family and friends. On Thanksgiving 2001 she prepared a feast to be remembered. Because she was born a day before July fourth, everyone knew there would be a big barbecue from about noon until. Barbara was a happy-go-lucky person and would tell it like it is. She will be remembered as a devoted mother and grandmother who showered everyone with her love and time. She was a chartered member of the El Casino Club and never missed of the Milford Avenue Neighborhood Association every since she moved on Milford Avenue. Barbara leaves to cherish her precious memory: three daughters, Carolyn,

Yvonne and Michelle: one brother, James (Bootsie)Gaskins; four grandchildren, Mia, Ashley, Gabrielle and one grandson, Michael; two nieces, Lisa and Danielle; one great-niece, Martrice; one goddaughter, Barbara Cureton; a devoted companion, David Burton, three close cousins, June Ellen, Gwendolyn and Alice Faye; one aunt, Laura Williams of Kingston, North Carolina; Carolyn's finance Byron and a host of relatives and friends.
