

Barbara M. Marsh

October 8, 1942 - August 20, 2016

Barbara Mae Cole-Marsh, 73, was born on October 8, 1942 to the late Louise and Morgan Cole as one of eleven children. She fell asleep in death on August 20, 2016.

Affectionately known as "Buckey", she grew up in Baltimore, MD, attending Douglass High School. She was married to William Marsh. She had a twenty-year career in Food Service at The Bryn Mawr School where she developed long term friendships, earned numerous awards and was crowned Queen for a Day.

After retiring from Bryn Mawr, she helped her daughters at the family business. She and her potato salad graced their way into the hearts and stomachs of the staff and residents there. The residents and staff loved them both. She loved sewing, decorating, giving advice and LOVED to EAT. She had only daughters, but was privileged to have three sons-in-law, three grandsons and two great-grandsons who treated her royally! Although out-numbered, her granddaughters loved her dearly as well. Her favorite place to visit was Disney World. She had several lifelong friends that kept in contact with her. Her personality was unique and honest. You knew where you stood with her. Everywhere she went, people knew her. She later moved to Harford county with her devoted grandson, where she made even more friends.

She is survived by: her husband, William Marsh; three daughters,

Wanda Randolph, Yolanda Thompson and Leola Pasalic; three sons-in-law, Wilmont Randolph, Ernest Thompson and Matthew Pasalic; three grandsons, Derrick Frank and his fiancée Stephanie Beachy, Delmar Randolph and Aaron Thompson; two granddaughters, Tia Thompson and Kiona Randolph; two great-grandsons, Knighten Frank and Truce Frank; two brothers, Marvin Cole and Morgan Cole; sister, Sarah Little; her god son, Sir Dante' Cole; a special family friend, Mary O'brien; and numerous nieces, nephews, family
