

Barbara McCoy Pepper

December 27, 1953 - July 6, 2010

Our beloved Mrs. Barbara Ann McCoy Pepper, daughter of the late LaSalle James and Ellamae Reid McCoy born December 27, 1953 in Norfolk, Virginia entered into eternal rest on July 6, 2010.

Barbara attended the former Carver High School in Chester, Virginia, but graduated from Thomas Dale High School in 1972 also located in Chester, Virginia.

Religion was a major part of her life and her number one priority was serving God. Barbara was baptized at the former Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Chester, Virginia in July 1960 with her other siblings. She joined Cedar Street Baptist in the 90s. And was a member of the former Cedar Street Mass Choir. Barbara met her loving and devoted husband Randolph during her employment at E.I. DuPont Spruance Plant. After more than 20 years of service, she retired in 1997 due to health reasons.

A kind and loving person, she was always willing to help her family and friends as well. You could always count on her to be there when you needed her. She had a radiant smile that could brighten up any room.

To still cherish her memory with a smile is her loving and devoted husband we all call Randy; loving and devoted daughters, Crystal McCoy (Keith) of Richmond and Crystal Pepper of Wilmington, North Carolina; son, Adam (Janey), of Texas which she always called "my son"; two granddaughters, Brooklyn Jackson of Richmond and Marissa Pepper of Wilmington; sisters, Jannie Irvin and Olive Bonaparte of Richmond, and Nona Meadows of
