“ May you be comforted by the the wonderful promises of our loving, heavenly father, who promises us a new world of peace and security; a world where sickness and death will no longer be. Isaiah 25:8 promises, "And he will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, will certainly wipe the tears from all faces; and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth; because Jehovah himself has spoken it." One day all those asleep in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. John 5:28,29 May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Barbara S. Johnson. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
