

Barbara Elizabeth Savage

March 24, 1945 - March 2, 2021

Barbara Elizabeth Savage, daughter of the late Faith (Cecil) Little, was born on March 24, 1945 and departed to eternal rest on March 2, 2021.

On November 21, 1964 Barbara united with Lloyd C. Savage in holy matrimony. Out of her union with Lloyd were born two caring children, Kim Savage Taylor and Lloyd C. Savage Jr.

Barbara attended the Baltimore City Public Schools, Carver Vocational Technical High School, with Cosmetology as her trade. She enjoyed doing family and neighbors' hair. On special occasions she was appointed to do all the girls' hair for Easter, back to school and weddings, etc. She retired from Eastern Standards after 20-plus years of service.

She loved the Lord and accepted Him as her Savior at an early age. She fellowshiped at The Wayland Baptist Church for over 27 years under the leadership and teaching of Rev. Hoffman F. Brown, III.

Barbara loved to sing and would never miss a choir rehearsal. She had been singing since childhood for family and friends. She knew all the gospel songs. We sometimes had church at home. She loved to shop especially with her sidekick Kim. She also enjoyed being with her family. Barbara enjoyed her weekly runs to Walmart with her husband and a good movie, especially old westerns. Even though she had a quiet spirit she also spoke her mind. She always wanted everyone to be included. She was a jokester, she would crack jokes on her family. Each day she shared loving or spiritual or funny text messages with her sisters and nieces. Always keeping us laughing. Barbara enjoyed life and her family, now she is enjoying life everlasting.

Barbara was preceded in death by her loving son Lloyd C. Savage, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Lloyd C. Savage Sr.; daughter, Kim Savage-Taylor; son-in-law, James L. Taylor Sr.; three grandchildren, Lloyd C. Savage III, Ebone M. Davis and Asia R. Savage; four great-grandchildren, Chayse Savage, Kayden McCray, Kayden D. Winder and Amario O. Parsons; four sisters, Diane Hall, Cheryl Allen, Marsha Little Pool and Tracey McAfee; one brother-in-law, Gregory McAfee; an aunt, Jean Vass; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ BARBARA

Bold, was her courage, to overcome so many hurdles in her life.

Assertive, yet positive, mindful, and classy; her traits as a devoted wife.

Radiant presence, as she smiled, with a warm spirit on your behalf.

Beaming with a notion for cheer, and a joke to make you laugh.

Affectionate and loving was her testament beyond measure.

Rich tones she sang with deep heart felt pleasure.

Ablaze with the zeal of the sweetness she knew best,

While praising her Saviour, where in His arms she now rests.

Barbara your light will forever shine in my heart!

Bless Kim Savage-Taylor and her Family with Peace & Comfort

Lovingly Missing You, My Dear Sister in Christ
