

Barbara Turner

June 16, 1945 - October 7, 2014

BARBARA TURNER, daughter of the late Lantham and Estella Turner, was born on June 16, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 7, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1963. She was employed by the Maryland Motor Vehicle Administration. She retired after thirty-eight years of dedicated service. At a young age she became a member of Centennial-Caroline United Methodist Church where she once served as a member of the usher board.

Affectionately known as “Barb” to family and friends, she was of a quiet nature; however, she was a great listener and friend to all. She was always there to give a helping hand no matter the need, often sacrificing her own. Barb enjoyed traveling and spending time with family and friends. She would most often be found with one more of her sisters, or with her two special sister friends, Francis Carr and Yvonne Boyd. Barb was quite a fashionista, always sharply dressed wearing her signature high heels. She was also a great dancer, known to “cut a rug” whenever the feeling hit her. Barb was truly a beautiful person and will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her.

Left to cherish her memory are: two sisters, Delores Turner and Sylvia Turner; one nephew, Antonio Stephens; two godsons, Biff Carr and Lonie Booth; and a host of other relatives and friends. Barb was preceded in death by her brother, Lantham E. Turner; and sister, Lana T. Powell.

DON'T CRY FOR ME PLEASE

Celebrate my life for it was good

Don't cry for me please,

I am not gone, my spirit's alive.

My time here on earth has past,

I'm at peace; no more pain at last.

Don't cry for me please

But do think of me with happy thoughts

And I will be right here

When the sun hits your face and a breeze brushes your ear

Know that's me letting you know I'm near.
