

Barbara V. Hopps

April 7, 1954 - March 23, 2008

Barbara V. Hopps, daughter of Yahya and the late Tauheedah Hassan, was born on April 7, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. Her battle with cancer ended on March 23, 2008. Barbara attended Western Senior High School in Baltimore and graduated in 1972. She then completed three years at Morgan State University. She then began to work for the Social Security Administration where she met her husband Mark. Barbara and Mark were married and from this union three children were born. Barbara left SSA to work in the private medical insurance industry for fourteen years before returning to Social Security. Barbara made numerous friends wherever she went. She was feisty, funny, loving, and caring. Her favorite pastime was cooking and taking care of her beloved father. She loved to feed anybody she could. She leaves to mourn her passing: her four children, Marquia, Marchelle, Mark and Chynita (Stepdaughter); sons-in-law, Harry, Andre' and Tammy; grandchildren, Daiyaan, Shari, Tyon, Taylor, Dartanon (Tay) and Kaya; her father Yahya; two brothers, Anees and Michael; sister, Viola; two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. Her mother Tauheedah, husband Mark and two brothers Tyrone and John preceded her in death.

“ *I wish to offer my heartfelt condolences to the family. Know that we have a loving heavenly father who promises to erase all pain and sorrow from our lives in the near future. It's so hard to see a loved one suffer through a sickness. We feel so helpless knowing that we cannot change the situation. But Jehovah God does have the power to end all sickness and death, and this is what his purpose is for us. Isaiah 33:24 says that one day no resident will say, "I an suck." Then Isaiah 25,8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." please find comfort and hope in God"s promises, and put all of your faith and trust in him, because he never fails to carry out his word. “ May I send condolence. When we loss a dear love one life seem to stop, however we will go on because our heavenly father is there with comfort and hope, Romans 15:4. Knowing that others care can give us reason to endure the thing happening in these last days. Better day are ahead and the time is coming when no one will ever die again as the bible say, something to see. May all the many cherished times spent with Ms. Barbara help to support you all on the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you during this time of tribulation, read 2 Cor. 1:3,4. Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that bring tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon that death will be no more, Rev. 21:3,4. And his Son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. This is found at John 5:28,29. What a wonderful prospect for our future. Please know that our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Shawn##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Jones, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my personal condolences to the children and family of Barbara Hopps. Barbara was a co-worker at SSA. In the time I've known her, she has always been a wonderful friend and a joy to know. Her disposition was always pleasant and her marvelous sense of humor was contagious. But as Barbara faced the illness to which she would eventually succumb, we here at SSA got a glimpse of a woman who had the hope the perseverance and courage that only a strong faith in God could impart. Please know that Barbara touched the hearts of many here at SSA and we are all the better for that blessing. I encourage you all to seek comfort in God's sacred promise during this difficult time. And may the peace and love of God attend you and the sweet memory of your beautiful mother for the rest of your lives. Yours in Christ##imported-begin##Linda C James##imported-end##

“ Marquia, Mark, and Tammy My prayers go out to you and your family. Please feel free to call on me for anything. A Better Place She's in a better place right now Than she's ever been before; All pain is gone; she's now at rest; Nothing troubles her anymore. It's we who feel the burden of Our sadness and our grief;. We have to cry, to mourn our loss, Before we get relief. We know we'll reconnect with her At the end of each life's road; We'll see her cherished face again When we release our earthly load. My Deepest Condolences, Icie K Allen###imported-begin###Icie Allen###imported-end##

“ I've known Barbara since the early 90's and her personality has never changed. She is one of the nicest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. She gave me the gift of friendship. Even when we lost contact and came back together. She remained the same. She had the purest heart I've known thus far. God Bless you and you Family.###imported-begin###Sharon Weeks###imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
