

Barbara Virginia Spicer-Love

August 1, 1937 - March 19, 2006

BARBARA V. SPICER LOVE, daughter of the late John and Sadie Spicer, sister of the late Margurite Mealy, Selena Anthony, Faye Cooper and Victor Spicer, was born on August 1, 1931. She fought a very long battle with cancer, and she was still fighting on her way home. She attended Baltimore City schools. She worked as a barmaid at Cliff's Bar for a while. She then decided to become a homemaker. She opened up her heart and doors to family members and friends whenever they needed to rest their bodies or feed their stomachs. She loved playing cards, pinochle, koom-kam, bid whist or 500, it did not matter. And she would laugh at you when she beat you, then she would say, "Now You Can Go Home." Barbara made plenty of friends and was loved and will be missed by everyone who knew her. Barbara leaves to mourn: her daughter, Louise M. Tomlinson; two grandsons, Antonio M. Lewis and Joseph L. Johnson; eight great grandchildren, Trenton Lewis, Shaniqua Johnson, Chantal Lewis, Brandon Lewis, Kenara Johnson, Saniah Johnson, Isiah Johnson and Justin Johnson; two granddaughters-in-law, Elizabeth Johnson and Marlena Henderson; two cousins, Kathleen Henson and Jean Ann Henson; three brothers, Joseph Brooks, Purnell Spicer and Steven Spicer; three sisters, Bertha Hill, Caletha Crawford and Priscilla Mickens; a devoted friend, Vernon Boone; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to your family on the death of your loved one. Saddy, sickness and death continues to stalk mankind even though this was not God"s purpose. Isaiah 33:24 tells us that one day soon "No resident will say, "I am sick." Also Isaiah 25:8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and he will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by his promises until that glorious day of the ressurection arrives.##imported-begin##R JohnaonrrR##imported-end##
