

Barbara Ann Ward

May 19, 1935 - July 3, 2015

Barbara Ann Ward was born May 19, 1935 to the late George Cleveland and Ianna Ashford. God called her home on July 3, 2015.

She was born, raised and educated in Wayne County, North Carolina, where she met and married Cleveland Ward and later relocated to Baltimore, Maryland.

She held various jobs throughout her career, but her most rewarding works were serving the Lord and others.

Her life was a true testimony of what "God" can do if you allow Him to use you.

Barbara enjoyed "Food Shopping," feeding and cooking for others. She fed a lot with so little, which put you in mind of Christ when he fed 5,000 with two fish and a loaf of bread. "Boy could she cook?" (I can still smell and taste barBQ, collard greens, fried fish, etc.)

The life she lived has spoken for her. You could call her in the midnight hours or early in the morning; however, be prepared because she was going to give you "God's Word," like it or not, handle it or not, for God she lived and for God she died, her life was her testimony.
