

Barbara Hayes Wilborn

September 30, 1945 - June 30, 2025

Sister Barbara Hayes Wilborn was born September 30, 1945 to the late Rosa Taylor Hayes and Junius Hayes. She entered into eternal life on June 30, 2025.

She attended Maggie L. Walker High School. She was employed by the US Post Office as a clerk until her retirement.

Sister Barbara was a faithful member of Trinity Baptist Church until her health began to decline.

She enjoyed being around family, outings, having fun with her bowling team and traveling around the world. She also enjoyed hanging out with her youngest daughter, Dana, going to various venues, eating out, going to the movies and concerts.

Barbara was preceded in death by her husband, Percy Cleo Wilborn and her parents.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories to her children, Karen Hodnett, Quentin Terry, Sr., and Dana Terry; seven grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; and her late siblings, Junius Hayes III, Douglas Hayes, Geraldine Horne, Michael Hayes and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Barbara Wilborn: We are sending our heartfelt condolences to your family. Our families were long time friends and grew up together. I was young at the time. I remembered their friendship with my family. Each of our families lost loved ones and the years slowly went by. Through God's grace we saw Barbara volunteering at a local hospital, and it was a beautiful reunion. Her smile warmed our hearts. My Mother told her where she moved after her retirement. Barbara contacted the apartment office and moved there. She didn't know that her apartment was next door to my mother. She was a blessing to us. I called her Sis, and she called my mother, Ma. We saw each other just about every day. If they didn't hear from one another, they would knock on the wall and say they were ok (smile). After my mother passed, we talked on the phone from time to time. I miss her smile, kindness, sweet personality and friendship. She will truly be miss. Rest in peace my sister.

“ I am happy and saddened at the same time that my friend, Barbara Hayes Wilborn, has transitioned to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I send my sincere condolences to the family at this time. I would like to share a memory of Barbara when I lived in Hampton, Virginia a few years ago. We were extended family through marriage. Barbara and I became friends right away and we visited and talked on the phone a lot. I can see her beautiful smile right now as it could light up a room. She was a breath of fresh air and I loved her dearly. My mother passed while I lived there and Barbara called and said "I am driving down to be with you during this and I will stay as long as you need me." What a good friend and I will never forget that act of kindness. Karen and family I know you will miss her and I pray for God's peace and comfort for you. With God's loving kindness and His Mercy and Grace, you will be able to carry on with all your wonderful loving memories of your Mom. Barbara H. Wilborn, my dear friend, you are in a better place. May you Rest In Peace.

To the Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. May you treasure the wonderful memories with God's love and consolation. Losing your mother is a very personal and intense experience. Her presence will be missed, but her spirit will always remain with you. I have many pleasant memories of Barbara that I will treasure. We used to have a great time laughing while working at the airmail facility with the P.O. Her fun-loving yet slightly firm personality is what drew people to her. Resting in the arms of God!
