“ My dearest Barbie, When I first met you 19 years ago, I fell in love with you. I thought you had the most beautiful face, the best laugh, and even though we were ten years apart, we just connected with each other. I'm incredibly sorry we lost so many years that we didn't stay connected. However, I will always be exceedingly grateful for being able to reestablish our friendship and love on FB of all places. We had some great chats, and it was as if those years without each other simply disappeared. I will ALWAYS love you sister. I am extremely saddened that Trevor, and your two precious children will continue on without you. But we all know it won't be long until we will be reunited for all eternity. And what a day of celebration that will be for all of us. Fly with the angels Barbie!##imported-begin##Barbi Phillips##imported-end##

“ Although I never met Barbie personally, I was put in contact with her through a good friend of both of ours. We shared a common sisterhood through our diagnosis and for that reason I feel like I knew her. We spoke several times on Facebook and I only wish I had had the opportunity to meet her in person. To the family she has left behind, please find comfort in the fact that she is at peace and pain-free and that you will all be together in eternity where there is no beginning and no end. Although she is gone far too soon, her legacy will live on in her family forever. If there is anything I can ever do to lend support or help at all, please contact me. God Bless all of you.###imported-begin##Karen Cole##imported-end##
