

Barry Chambers

March 7, 1945 - August 10, 2011

Barry Chambers, born March 7, 1945 to the late Leon and Mary Chambers was called home to rest on August 10, 2011 after a lengthy illness. At an early age he attended Mt. Zion United Methodist Church and just weeks before he passed away he rededicated his life to Christ.

Barry was educated in the Baltimore City School System. He graduated from Baltimore City College in 1963. There after he enlisted into the United States Air Force as an air traffic controller. He was in active service for eight years and served his country in the Vietnam War.

After his tour of duty in the U.S. Air Force he trained to become a fire fighter. This accomplishment aided in his receiving the accolades and accommodations of being one of Howard County's first black fire fighters and the very first black fire fighter to retire from Howard County. He was one of the founding members of the Phoenix Sentinels, an association for black fire fighters.

His accomplishments and achievements did not stop there. While a fire fighter, his desire to help others extended into his becoming an Emergency Medical Technician. He became the fires black paramedic in Howard County. He retired from the Howard County Fire Department in 1996 and Baltimore City as a PSO officer at the Convention Center.

Barry, a very charismatic person, loved to socialize, travel, and play sports. Some of his favorite hobbies included playing pool, tennis, and golf. He always said he put the "P" in pinochle.

His beautiful memories will live on in the hearts of his daughters Cheryl, Tracey, Kimberly and Crystal; his special daughters Kawana, Rhonda, and Jazmine; his sons-in-law Marlo Gough, Jermaine Thomas and Daryl Elliott.

He was preceded in death by his brother Ronnie Lee Jr. He leaves to mourn 3 grandchildren Katoriae, Noah and Rayna; one great grandchild Braylyn Melrose; One brother Leon Chambers, two sisters-in-law Gwendolyn Lee and Ethel Chambers; three aunts Bessie Franklin, Lydia Brown and Mable Lipscomb; A special caretaker Robin Guy and a host of other family and friends.

“ Barry Chambers was the consummate professional. He always brought a level of calmnes and surity to every call and had a way of making everyone at ease because of his high skill level. I was very proud to be in the department with him and to see him get a chance to retire was a source of joy for me. You will be missed, Brother.
