

Barry S. Jackson

May 9, 1970 - May 20, 2017

Barry Jackson, son of the late Will Rogers Mentor and Joyce Jackson, was born May 9, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home suddenly on May 20, 2017.

Barry received his education in the Baltimore County School System. Barry was a licensed barber but the family called him a "Jack of All Trades". He was talented in many fields such as an electrician, a mechanic, a carpenter and he enjoyed them all.

Family and friends were Barry's love and joy. He grew up enjoying holidays with his family, friends, and many cousins. If you ever had the chance to know him you knew you had a devoted friend for life. Whenever he walked in a room he lit it up with his inner joy, his smile and his laughter which resonated from the love he received from his family and friends. He was also a comedian and a jokester. He always had a joke to tell and laughter always followed.
