

Barry Rodney Lewis Jr.

March 1, 1961 - August 18, 2017

Barry Rodney Lewis, Jr. was born on March 1, 1961 in Baltimore, MD. He was the eldest of four children. Barry was the son of the late Paulette Harris and the late Barry Lewis, Sr. Barry received his education through Baltimore City Public School System. He later joined the military as a National Guard.

During high school, Barry was an avid swimmer. He later joined the US Army and served his country. Throughout the years, Barry mastered many careers. He held a job as a medical assistant at a nursing home. Barry received special recognition from Project Save A Life. He recently completed his culinary studies program and was so excited to see his grandmother, mother, sister, daughter, grandson and cousin at the graduation. He loved spending time with his family cracking jokes. He always blessed us with a big ole smile and that wet juicy kiss on the cheek.

Later in life, trials and tribulations allowed him to call on the one who was able to keep him from falling. He gave his life to Christ at Payne Memorial AME Church and was baptized on August 29, 2010. Barry was part of the Restoration Ministry at Payne Memorial AME Church.

His legacy is left within his daughter, Felicia Davis; grandchildren, Arden, Brycen and Cayden Butler; sister, Sherri Salaam; brothers, Turonn Lewis and the late, Damon Lewis; grandmother, Clustie Ford; godsister, Danna Ford; two nieces, Ikea and Cierra; nephew, Tavon and a host of relatives and friends.
