“ Sitting here at my desk, I think about you every day. It feels like yesterday and it's easier to deal with but the pain feels the same. It felt like I had a bond with you, better than with most kids. I saw the good in you and never did you show me different. I remember keeping you about 3 months when you were little and wished then my circumstances would have allowed longer. I miss and love you son much nephew-son. Until we meet again, rest in peace
