

Basil Brown

February 5, 1929 - December 27, 2002

Basil (a.k.a. the “B”) Brown was born February 5, 1929, to the late Rev. Basil Brown and Mrs. Eleanor Grant Brown, in Baltimore, Maryland. He met and married the late Hattie L. Scott in the summer of 1947. On December 27, 2002, god called Basil home while he was in the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Basil attended Baltimore City Public Schools and began working at Bel Air Markets at an early age. He went on to work for General Motors Corporation as a truck and bus assembly line worker in 1950. He retired from there after thirty years of service on October 1, 1984. On a warm summer day in 1990, Basil realized that he needed to be eternally saved. That day he kneeled down with his son on bended knees, opened his heart up to the Lord and confessed Jesus as his Savior while confessing his sins before Almighty God. He is preceded in earth by: one sister, Margaret Brown Hill; and three brothers, Charlie Brown, Bennie Brown and William Brown. He leaves to cherish his loving memory: one sister, Mamie Brown Johnson; two brothers, Freddie Brown and the Rev. John Brown Sr., all of Baltimore, Maryland; seven children, Carolyn, Warren, Aaron (Boone), Gregory, Lester (Bam), George (Byrd)-all of Baltimore, Maryland, and Clarence (Melvin) of Huntsville, Alabama; twenty-two grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren, three daughters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
