

Batine Zakiyyah

March 14, 1945 - February 23, 2011

BATINE ZAKIYYAH, daughter of the late William and Eleanor Jones, was born on March 14, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, and attended Sojourner- Douglass College.

In 1995, she retired from Verizon with twenty-five years of service. Soon after, she took a job with the State of Maryland as a Commitment Records Specialist at the Baltimore City Detention Center. She worked there for four years. She ended her service there due to illness.

We praise God for the life of Batine. She was a loving and caring mother and grandmother, and loyal, devoted friend. She had two daughters Latiscia Timmons and Patricia Lightfoot (deceased).

She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Latriscia Timmons; five sisters and one brother, Wendy, Pattie, Barbara, Beverly, Crystal and William (Billy) Jones; one son-in-law, Kevin (Tony) Timmons; five grandchildren, Davina, Kevin II, Melony, Patrice and Jamal; four great-grandchildren, Devante, DeAsia, Xander and Courtney; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“If anyone asks how I want to be remembered; I did the best I could with what

I had. The road has not been easy but I traveled it with God's grace.”

Batine Zakiyyah

“ Batine Zakiyyah

“ It was a total shock to find out today, your birthday, that my good friend had passed away.

I remember you from the time that I walked into the Graphic Department on St. Paul Street and was introduced to you. Your name back then was Penny, then Clarice, and finally Batine. I remember asking you when your came to work what name were you going by that day.

My friend, I will cherish all the memories of the fun times that we had working together. You were one of the few people that I worked with that I considered a friend and not just a co-worker.

You will be missed and I look forward one day to meeting you again.
