

Beadie L. B. Miller

January 29, 1924 - March 15, 2014

Beadie was the seventh of nine children born to Richmond H. Sturdivant and Julia A. Bivens on January 29, 1924 in Marshville (Union County), North Carolina. She loved to play basketball and often bragged that her father taught her how to fight. Beadie completed her education at Old Marshville High School. She accepted Christ early in life when she joined Elizabeth Baptist Church.

Beadie left Marshville and moved to Washington, DC where she met her husband Willmore Augustus Miller. They were married on May 5, 1952. She moved to New York where she worked and raised her two children for approximately 12 years. Upon the death of her husband, she moved to Baltimore where she lived out the remainder of her days.

Beadie was very generous and enjoyed helping others. Her quick wit and sense of humor won her many friends. Beadie loved to bake. She shared her confections with many who will miss those cakes, cookies and croissants (with and without chocolate).

She leaves behind two children Willmore Augustus Jr. and Deborah Ann; sisters Daisy Dolsey, Ruth Hasty, Myrtle Black, Genetta Huff; brother in law Walter C. Black; daughter in law Angela C. Mason; grandchildren Eddie Exum, Candice McDonald, Wilbert McDonald, Devontay Mason; great “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
