

Beatrice L. Alston

December 15, 1951 - September 16, 2013

BEATRICE L. ALSTON, daughter of the late Edna V. Warren and Charles Warren and wife of Clyde Alston, was born December 15, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. She passed from life to eternal rest on Monday, September 16, 2013. At an early age she accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at Wayland Baptist Church.

She married Clyde Alston in 1990 and he helped raise her two children, Kenneth and Korene Owens and accepted the grandchildren as his own. She received her formal education at Forest Park High School. She later became employed by the State of Maryland; she had twenty-eight years with the Maryland State Police. After retirement she later became a Day Care Provider "Bee's Little Honeys" where she nurtured and educated the young children.

Cookie enjoyed singing, dancing, playing the organ, painting and eating. She loved her sweets.

Beatrice (Cookie) will be deeply missed by those she leaves to mourn: a devoted husband, Clyde Alston; two children, Kenneth Owens and Korene Owens; four grandchildren, Tiffany Schlereth, Ashlee Guy, Allan Pinkney and Amari Gunn; two sisters, Valerie V. Gavins and Stephanie L. Warren; two brothers, Lemuel Carey and Garrison M. Warren; eight sisters-in-law, Joan Warren, Debbie Carey, Diane Spriggs, Pearlene Morris, Lesia Green, Linda Alston, Carnell Holmes and Torkwase Al-Salaam; great-aunt, Lillian Lee; best friend, Debbie Anderson-Knight; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and many friends.

Also, preceding her in death; one brother, Charles Rosco Warren.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your family at this time. In times of distress, we need comfort that soothes our heart, our mind and our emotions. I found comfort in the words of 1 John 3:19-22; 5:14, 15.

“ I want to extend my deepest sympathy's to Clyde, Valerie, Kenny, Corey, and to each and every family member. I have known "cookie" for close to forty years. And I have never met, a more kind, loving and giving spirit as "she". I used to call her "lil" Beatrice. I am proud to have been called both friend, and family by her. I could quote a thousand words meant to comfort us all at this time. And although, they would be from the very core of my heart, it would not be adequate, for the lost, of a wife, sister, mother, aunt, and yes our friend. We were just not ready, there wasn't enough time, and yes she was much too young!! So, on the next clear star filled night, when we look to the Heavens, try and be comforted in the fact, that the Lord has called another of his stars "Home"....And she is at Peace!!! Time and Prayer will heal all wounds.....

“ First, I'd like to extend sympathy and condolences to Bea's family during this difficult time. What a true friend, beautiful person & spirit; to me, she was family, like a sister.

I am blessed to not only to have known her for 30 + years of our lives, but, kept in constant touch with one another (she in Cumberland, MD and me in Florida). I will miss my friend, our conversations, laughter and her smile. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ My deepest sympathies to the family. Cookie was a bright and shining star that God gave us to love and enjoy even it was for what seems to be too short a time. Cherish the memories and celebrate her life. Her spirit will always remain with those who loved her, her husband, children and grandchildren, her sisters and brothers, and many nieces and nephews and friends. What a wonderful legacy of love. May your faith continue to keep and strengthen you in days ahead. I hope you find comfort in knowing that she is now in perfect peace and with her family who preceded her in glory. Rest assured in the blessing that one day you will see her again.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.

“ I extend my condolences to the family of Beatrice Alston. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. The Bible offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more. (Rev. 21:4) Psalms 37:9,10,11,29 helps us appreciate that we can have an opportunity to see our deceased love ones again, in the coming paradise on earth. I hope that these scriptures provide comfort for you and your family.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
