

Beatrice D Burgess

December 2, 1928 - November 28, 2015

BEATRICE DELORES JEWS BURGESS, born December 2, 1928, departed this life on November 28, 2015. Beatrice was born in Baltimore, MD, and was the oldest of three children.

She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She also attended Peabody for a while for voice training.

Bea, as she is known to most, married the love of her life, the late Emerson L. Burgess and we say this because they met at the tender age of thirteen. From this union four children were born.

Bea worked various jobs, but in 1957 she was notified that she would start work at SSE. She was so excited, she ran up and down the steps several times with joy. She remained at SSA until her retirement in 1986.

Bea accepted Christ at an early age. She became a member of Wayland Baptist Church in 1966. Bea was blessed with a beautiful voice. She started singing at the young age of eight, singing was her passion. Bea sang with the Sanctuary Choir, the Voices of Wayland, the Mass Choir, the Community Choir of Baltimore, the Greater Hymns Choir and sang with the SSA choir for fifty-five years. She also belonged to the Henson Ministry.

Bea loved to travel, go out to eat, go to the movies and spend time with her family.

Beatrice leaves to mourn: two daughters, Sandra Lill Davis (Carl), Latisha T. Scott (Harold); two sons, Emerson R. Burgess (Dakota), Stanley C. Burgess; eight grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren, six great-great-grandchildren, two sisters-in-law, Lillian Washington (Wilbur), Edith Addison (Robert); Isaiah Pearson who she thought of as a son; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

I remember that Bea's favorite song was "In the Garden". She would sing it anytime, anywhere she was asked. A beautiful voice and a beautiful person. -Sandy Wieprecht
