

Beatrice Chapman Idlitt

January 11, 1907 - April 3, 2004

Beatrice C. Idlett, daughter of the late Joseph and Mahalia Chapman, was born January 11, 1907 in Surry county, Virginia. She was educated in the county public schools. At an early age she was baptized and joined Mt. Nebo Baptist Church in Surry County. As teenagers, after the death of both parents, she and her sister Josephine moved to Baltimore, Maryland to live with relatives. Her sister, Josephine C. Pierce preceded her in death. Beatrice met her future husband, Melvin Henry Idlitt, while attending night school. They were married for fifty years, until his death in 1978. From this union was born their only child, Marion. Beatrice was a faithful and dedicated member of Fountain Baptist Church for more than fifty-two years; in later years health problems prevented her attending. She enjoyed traveling, was an avid reader and joined many church and social groups. She was known for her fancy hats and delicious sweet potato pies. She leaves to cherish happy memories: her daughter, Marion Idlitt Simmons; son-in-law, Herbert L. Simmons; nieces, Jean Jackson and JoAnne Hall; grandnieces, Claudia Sydnor and Tracy Hall; grandnephew, Milton Glenn Jackson; and other relatives and friends.

“ Hello, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ *I wish to send my regrets to the family of Ms. Idlitt. The bible gives us reassurance that one soon by means of God's Kingdom death will be no more. One such scripture can be found at Revelation 21:3,4...." And he wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more.. The former things have passed away"##imported-begin##K. D. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
