“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for your loss. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us "There is going to be a resurrection." From the Bible we learn that this event will take place after the earth is becomes a peaceful paradise by Almighty God. (2 Peter 3:13, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43)May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my condolences for your great loss. It really hurts us like nothing else when we lose a loved one in death. God knows our pain, and out of his great love for us he took steps to bring a permanent end to sickness, death, and all tragedies. His desire has always been for people to live eternally in peace and happiness, because he wants his will to take place here on earth; just as it is in heaven. One day his purpose will be realized, and all those who have died will be raised to live in beautiful and peaceful surroundings forever. Please reflect on what the bible says at Rev.21:3-5 about a world without pain and sorrow for mankind. Until the resurrection takes place, may your cherished memories of your loved one sustain you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
