

Beatrice Hannah Washington

April 1, 1933 - April 30, 2010

Beatrice H. Washington was born April 1, 1933 to the late Beatrice Jones in Richmond, Virginia. She entered into eternal life after a long illness on Friday, April 30, 2010. She was reared and educated in Richmond, Virginia, where she attended Richmond Public Schools. In March 1952, she married David H. Washington, Sr., who preceded her in death. Beatrice was retired from St. Mary's Hospital after 20 years of dedicated service. Her love, guidance and feisty attitudes were always apparent. She was a devoted mother, aunt and great aunt. We will always miss her presence and laughter. We know that our loss is her eternal gain, knowing that all things work together for the good of those who love the Lord. She leaves to cherish her memory, three daughter, Dainese J., Diane Washington, and Fernanda Welton; her son David H. Washington, Jr., aunt Bessie Gillyard; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Beatrice Hannah Washington. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy.' May you find comfort in knowing that our loving heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our 'enemy to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
