“ I send my condolences to the family. We can have a hope, though, that "there is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15). Soon thereafter, death and sickness will be eradicated (Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 33:24). I hope that you can find comfort from the Bible.##imported-begin##K Adams##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Edmonds, I am so sorry that you lost your loved one. Please accept my condolences. Sadly, sickness and death continues to take our loved one from us. It's just not right, and it certainly isn't God's purpose for us. May it comfort you to know that soon Jehovah promises to end all sickness and death, pain and sorrow from our lives. He promises that our dead ones will live again. Daniel 12:2 tells us, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up.' Acts 24:15 also promises that there will be a resurrection. I pray that you find the comfort you need to help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
