BEATRICE LORRAINE KITTRELL was born April 23, 1919 in Ayden, North Carolina to the late Cornelius and Martha Kittrell. Beatrice, affectionately known as Bea, departed this life on Monday, January 7, 2008. Bea recently moved to Baltimore, Maryland to reside with her son and daughter-in-law, who provided around the clock care during her extended illness. She first moved to Washington, D.C. following her siblings' footsteps to find suitable employment. She then decided to move to Brooklyn, New York where she resided and worked for over sixty years until her relocation to Baltimore. Bea worked as a clerical assistant in some prestigious financial and banking institutions such as Merrill Lynch and Hanover Manufacturers Trust. She retired from Morgan Chase Bank. Bea had a strong compelling love for her family. She cherished her brothers and sister; and just loved her nieces and nephews unconditionally. With her charismatic, sophisticated, fashionable, and fun loving personality, she welcomed all of her family to her Brooklyn home where she provided the best hospitality. She would cook and entertain to ensure we were comfortable and felt at home. Baked turkey wings were her specialty and making us laugh was her forte. She was mutually loved by the family for all of her attention and affection. Throughout her many blessed years, she always in the company of and cared for by her faithful devoted Sister Nan and loyal nephew Eldon. Bea was a born again Christian who loved the Lord, and spent much time reading her bible and the "Daily Word" devotional materials. She was also an avid follower of current events, New York and national politics.

She consistently, every day, read the newspapers and could converse intelligently on the current and past events as well as political administration of New York City and the country. “ I'm sorry to learn of the death of Beatrice. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief. There is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Job 14:15,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
