

Beatrice Melton

November 4, 1920 - June 4, 2013

BEATRICE "AUNT BEA" MELTON, was born on November 4, 1920 in Cullen, Virginia. She departed this life on June 4, 2013.

Aunt Bea was the youngest of four children; and was raised by her Aunt Netty in a pink house owned by our family. She received her high school diploma and went to work as a housekeeper. This was her chosen profession until her retirement many years ago. She attended City Temple Baptist Church for many years.

Beatrice was married twice. Her first marriage lasted two years and ended in divorce. Her second marriage was to Joseph Melton. The two were married for sixty-six years until his death on April 29, 2003. Beatrice never had any children during either of her marriages.

Aunt Bea was a very sweet woman. She loved to cook; and was famous for her poundcake that she made from scratch. She enjoyed shopping and getting a fresh salad from Giant Food Market. Beatrice loved taking road trips to Atlantic City with family members. She also enjoyed laughing, smiling and having a good time. Aunt Bea was always in high spirits, so much so, that you could rarely tell when something was bothering her. She loved to make people laugh and smile, especially children. Aunt Bea was truly adored by everyone who knew her and loved her.

She is survived by: her great-great-niece and caregiver, Tyesha Cunningham and her family; three nephews, Waverly Bedford, Daniel Bedford and Johnny Bedford; two nieces, Evelyn Bedford and Sally Watson; cousin, Archer Gregg; and a sister-in-law, Cecelia Brooks; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry to hear that Aunt Bea passed away. I wasn't aware of this until a few days ago. I decided to drop in on her over the Christmas holiday and was told she no longer lived at her apartment. I then decided to Google her just on the chance that I would find something. And I landed on this page. She was my unofficial godmother, growing up next door when she lived on Norfolk. I'll miss her terribly.

“ To the Melton family;

I wanted to send my condolences to your family. May the memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Jesus liken death to being asleep, He even promised a future resurrection at John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Marvel not at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the graves will hear His voice & come out."

We can see our dead loved ones again, right here on this earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9, 10,11 & 29).

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Love,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ God is the God of all comfort. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." -2Corinthians 1:3
So very sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. When we draw close to God, he will draw close to us; one way to do this is through prayer - the value of prayer is not to be underestimated. Once again, I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one.
